Formerly Retirees Seek Partners to Support International Volunteer's Project
By Anne Steiner
Formerly Retirees have made a match. Now, so has The Pillager. Several former retirees attended the 2014-2015 Working World in Florida, held September 10-11, 2015. The dates coinciding with the 40th anniversary, led to providing a platform to explore how and how often individuals with interests and abilities in the field of international volunteerism could be supported by former retirees. The project is now in the planning stages and will be a major focus of the 2016-2017 Working World in Florida, held September 10-11, 2016.
